

School performance data 2018

(All numbers in brackets are national figures)

EYFS – Early years Foundation Stage - 64% (released in October) of the children reached a good level of development

Year 1 Phonics – 86% (83%) of the children attained the threshold score

Key Stage 1 SATS Reading 76% (76%) attained the expected standard with 20% (26%) attaining the greater depth threshold

Writing 76% (70%) attained the expected standard with 12% (16%) attaining the greater depth threshold

Maths 84% (76%) attained the expected standard with 24% (22%) attaining the greater depth threshold

Key Stage 1 Combined measure – 68% (65%) of children attained the expected standard in Reading, writing and maths

Key Stage 2 SATS Reading 100% (75%) attained the expected standard with 37% (28%) attaining the greater depth threshold

Writing 85% (78%) attaining the expected standard with 22% (20%) attaining the greater depth threshold

SGP 89% (78%) attaining the expected standard with 44% (34%) attaining the greater depth threshold

Maths 89% / 93% (pending one review) (75%) attaining the expected standard with 30% (23%) attaining the greater depth threshold

Key Stage 2 Combined measure – 82% / 86% (pending one review) (64%) of the children attained the expected standard in reading, writing and maths combined.

Key Stage 1 – Key Stage 2 progress measures

Reading +5.4 / Writing +2.6 / Maths + 4.4. A progress measure of 0 is the national average.